Master's Thesis Review Committee:

This committee will advise the student on selecting and researching their topic, attend the thesis presentation, review and assist the student in editing the thesis document, and sign off that the student has successfully completed the thesis. Each student is responsible for initiating his or her own thesis committee. The committee consists of two or more members, one of which (the chair) should be a regular SMEA faculty member. The second member may be Graduate Faculty from other UW departments and schools, SMEA affiliate faculty, or other non-UW faculty that hold a Ph.D. or J.D.

-The Chair must be SMEA faculty (includes emeritis, adjunct, and faculty without tenure status)

-Any non-UW faculty committee members must hold either a Ph.D. or a J.D. (however a petition to add a member who does not hold one of the aforementioned degrees may be submitted to the GPC for approval).

-50% of the committee must be on the UW graduate faculty list \(https://grad.uw.edu/for-faculty-and-staff/graduate-faculty-locator/\)

The thesis committee will sign both the student's Warrant and Master's Supervisory Committee Approval Form stating that the student has completed the thesis and should be granted the degree of Master of Marine Affairs. The warrant is submitted to the department Graduate Program Advisor with a copy of the final thesis document. The Master's Supervisory Committee Approval Form should be signed and delivered by 5:00pm PST on the last day of the quarter the student wishes to graduate in, to Graduate Enrollment Management Services (GEMS) in G-1 Communications Bldg., Box 353770.
